ANOTHER MASS MEETING

Chinese Versus White Labor Ably Discussed—Resolutions Passed.

Fostering the Chinese Element Ultimate Death to Our Own Institutions.

Support to be Withheld From Any Candidate Countenancing Chinese.

The second mass meeting under the auspices of the anti-Chinese Union was held last evening. About 8 o'clock the processionists formed into line at the corner of Yates and Government streets, and headed by the Blue Ribbon band marched through several streets to Blanchard, where they halted near the electric light mast. A large number of the white workingmen of the city surrounded a wagon, which was used as a temporary platform for the speakers; and almost immediately after arriving, Mr. Duval, Secretary of the Union, called the assemblage to order, and proceeded to business. He said that there were one or two things that they had to settle tonight. One was in reference to the trustee election, for which Mr. Dalby, a large employer of Chinese labor in two places, was a candidate. He called on Mr. Haughton to move the first resolution. Mr. Haughton came forward and moved:—"In view of the large influx of Chinese into our country, and as it is the opinion of all well thinking men and women that the fostering of the element here means ultimate death to our institutions, be it

"Resolved, That we, the voters of this meeting, will withhold our support from any candidate that countenances the employment of Chinese labor."

He said that while believing the question was not a Chinese one, and could have no bearing as to whether the Chinese should go or stay, yet he believed a beginning should be made, and it should be made in a right direction. No person employing Chinese labor should receive a public position, as a trustee or in our public halls. We should begin with the first opportunity. It has been said that white men would not accept positions unless they have large pay. All honor to them for that. They cannot live on the wages of Chinese. It has also been said that we cannot rely on white men to fulfil contracts as well as upon Chinamen, and it is true that we cannot up to the same wages. White men are able to compete with the Chinese any day, and are able to accomplish as much, and if encouraged to come here this would be made the finest country on the earth. Will the Chinese build up our institutions or will they assimilate with our habits and ways? No! Then let us pass prohibitory measures to prohibit them from coming here. Let British Columbia be for British Columbians and not for the Chinese. He would not speak against them if they would assimilate with us and help to make our country prosperous, but like leeches they were sucking blood from our veins. We must take a stand to support only those for public positions who are opposed to Chinese. It may take years to do it but it is the drop of water on the rocks, day by day that wears away the stone, and by such a course we will accomplish our purpose. This was a vital question, and as an employer of labor he had paid hundreds of dollars more so that white girls could have work rather than give it to the Chinese. He had never given them five cents worth of work. Having suffered as a working man he had resolved that if ever he became an employer of labor he would help white men. And if we cannot Christianize them without taking the bread out of our own months, he would leave them to their fate. (Cheers.)

Mr. B. H. West seconded the resolution and urged its adoption as far as was practical. Although having no vote in Victoria, or in British Columbia, he still had to pay into the school fund, and it was a tax he would gladly pay, as it went to educate the poor man's boy. If he had a right to pay, he had a right to speak on this question. Mr. Dalby ranks among a class that has said that the Chinese are conducive to the material interests of British Columbia. This is a fallacy. On the shores of the Atlantic, cities, railways and public works were built without the aid of the Mongolians, and if Eastern Canadians were able to build up the country themselves, why cannot British Columbians do the same. This gentleman (Mr. Dalby) belongs to a certain class, that has been sending to the east papers that say there is a field here for white labor, but when white men went to him for work they were refused. Boys and girls will live to compete with the degraded element. Does it behoove us as intelligent men to give way to the Chinese, and to look on to the crumbling away of our institutions. I ask you to give practical assent to this resolution and to help its adoption. The time will come when every intelligent man will curse the day that he stood practically aloof on this question. The men who continue to employ Chinese labor will do so at the cost of their own social and moral character. (Applause)

The resolution was put and carried unanimously.

Mr. Duval said that at their last meeting, a resolution had been passed assailing Mr. Drake and to-night they had passed one opposing another man for trustee. They had now another resolution, and it was aimed higher. He did not believe in hitting the little dog and letting the big dog alone. The Lieut.-Governor employed Chinese servants and people who went to Government House were met at the door by a Chinaman, who could not speak English (shame). It was an insult to the white men of the country that this should be so. He then read the resolution:

To the Hon. Clement J. Cornwall:

SIR,—In view of the agitation which has been in existence in the province for years, we the members of the anti-Chinese union in mass meeting assembled desire to draw your attention to the fact that while the House of Assembly is legislating to restrict Chinese immigration and force them to gradually withdraw from this province the executive mansion is supplied with Chinese servants, which circumstance is used to nullify the unanimous vote of the local house. We further beg leave to call your attention to the fact that in view of the legislation of the local house the employment of such servants by the governor of this province comes to be private business and becomes a matter affecting public interest. It is a fundamental principal of constitutional government as laid down in the Letellier case in the province of Quebec that the lieutenant-governor of a province must be ruled by the advice of his ministers. We, therefore, request that you be guided in this matter by the advice of your ministers, and by so doing strengthen the strenuous efforts the people of this province are making to rid themselves of the evil of Chinese immigration.

Resolved, That the secretary of the anti-Chinese union is hereby instructed to forward a copy of this preamble and resolution to the Lieutenant-Governor of this Province.

It was no wonder under the circumstances, that Sir John A. Macdonald should throw into our faces that we employed Chinese, and thus tried to show our inconsistency.

Mr. Shopland seconded this resolution. He said that in Government House there were China chamber men instead of chamber maids. When the Canadian Pacific Railway is through this will be a great depot for Chinamen; they will come here and then go farther, we will be the first sufferers. Chinamen were in every business to-day—they were even in opposition to Mr. Humber. The working men should relieve them of their work and run them out.

Resolution put and carried unanimously.

Mr. Powell introduced the next resolution, and commented on an article that had appeared in the Colonist, signed by a person named Smith, and which said that all the noise and talk on this question was confined to Victoria. If that is true it is time that it was extended to the whole province. The speaker owed his living to the white people and not to the Chinese. That people were surely undermining our social system and sapping the foundation of our free institutions. They were a diseased race, and among them smallpox and leprosy were more prevalent than among any other race. The population of the Sandwich Islands has decreased since Chinamen went amongst them. The speaker referred to the statements made by a Mr. W. Wood, in a Montreal paper, and exposed their inconsistencies, and closed by saying that we must speak with a decision and firmness that will teach the people in the east that we are in earnest. He moved: Whereas, the Chinese evil is not only local, but affects directly and indirectly the whole white population of this province, it is desirable and necessary that the working men of every town and city of this province speak out strongly on this vital question. Resolved, That the people of New Westminster, Nanaimo and Yale be requested to hold mass meetings as early as possible and form branch associations of the "Anti-Chinese Union" to assist the said union to get rid of the Chinese that are here, and prevent the landing of any more upon our shores.

Mr. R. T. Williams, in seconding the resolution said that he was pleased to see so many persons present, and that it afforded him much pleasure to second the motion. This question affected him directly and personally. At the present time if exclusively white labor were employed on the Island railway line, the printing and binding would reach $300 per month, instead of as at present $50 per month. This is a matter that not only affected the speakers in a direct way but also every one who has any stake in the Province. Had we white labor on the Island line, every business man in Victoria would be doing twice the amount of business he is doing to-day. Any one that cannot see this plain fact must be blind to his own interest. We require united action in this matter, and the assistance of every person that has the good of this country at heart, irrespective of his or he religious or political convictions. It is not a question of politics. It is a question of elevating our own race and ridding the country of a class of labor that will never aid half as much to advance and build up the country as they will to lower the value of every industry in the Province. After reading a statement of a 25 years resident of Hongkong, showing that Chinese merchants had completely supplanted American and English merchants in every branch of trade, Mr. Williams thanked the audience for the kind hearing they had given him. (Applause).

The resolution was put and carried with the same unanimity as all the others.

Mr. S. Creech said that a resolution had been passed at the City Hall on the 2nd of May, demanding that the Dominion government pass a restrictive law, to come into force on the 1st of July. But nothing had yet been done, and to-night he would move

"Resolved, That the citizens of Victoria, in mass meeting assembled, make a second and final demand on the Dominion government to make and put in force a law restricting Chinese immigration immediately or we will have to take other means to rid ourselves of that curse, and that this resolution be telegraphed to Ottawa."

Mr. Shinnabarger said "the Chinese shall go." This was his private opinion publicly expressed. Some years ago he had had the honor of working shoulder to shoulder with Dennis Kearney on this question, and although he had proved a traitor to the cause there were many honorable men in the ranks. The movement was overthrown simply because they grew careless through success. Beware of political backs. The dominion government were derilict on this question which demands immediate action. The speaker reverted to the dispute between the union printers and the Standard proprietor, who had threatened to send to Hongkong for printers. He did not ask them to boycott the Standard—let it die in peace. (Cheers.)

The resolution was put and carried, and the procession reforming were marched back to Campbell's corner and there dispersed.

POLICE COURT.

(Before Edwin Johnson, Esq., S. M.)

Dick, a Cowichan Indian, in possession of an intoxicant, fined $25 and $1 costs.

Wm. C. DeLong and H. Hondola, on remand, for stealing $6 from the room of Joseph Grandon, at the Colonial Hotel. The evidence made out a prima facie case, and the magistrate committed the prisoners to stand their trial.

—Messrs. Derwent and Tweedy, of Eagle Pass, were yesterday granted a liquor license for their hotel.

—Messrs. Humber & Chisholm have purchased the Jones ranch, near Eagle Pass, and are now offering travelers excellent accommodation.

—Messrs. McNicoll & Sears, of the Arlington, Kamloops, have greatly improved the appearance of their hotel and renovated their premises generally.

—A passenger on the Teaser from New Westminster died in his berth on Sunday morning. He had been suffering from chronic asthma and had come to the city for treatment. His name is supposed to be Robert Heal, of Chilliwhack.

THE WIDE WORLD.

THIS DAY'S DESPATCHES.

WITHOUT A MINISTRY.

The Salisbury-Churchill Conference.

Special to THE TIMES.

LONDON, June 16.—At the close of the conference to-day between the Marquis of Salisbury and Lord Randolph Churchill, which by the way lasted just one hour, Lord Randolph proceeded to the Carlton club, where the members were gathered to hear the result of his conference with the Marquis. The conservatives in general were disappointed that no progress has been made. Once yesterday and fear is now expressed that the delay to form a cabinet will damage the prospects of the Tory party in the approaching general elections. Matters just now are at a standstill. The Conservatives appear reluctant to take office until the opinion of the whole party can be taken. The Marquis of Salisbury will confer with the Queen again to-morrow. In the meantime nothing will be done regarding foreign, colonal or Indian affairs without the Marquis of Salisbury having been first consulted. One report in circulation this afternoon regarding the conference between Lord Randolph Churchill and the Marquis of Salisbury is that the two leaders became reconciled, each granting concessions in relation to the administration of affairs, and that a cabinet is now being formed on the basis of an agreement between them.

Lord Churchill Confers with Lord Salisbury.

Special to THE TIMES.

LONDON, June 16.—Lord Randolph Churchill is holding a conference to-day with the Marquis of Salisbury. It is reported that the subject under consideration is the necessity for the extension of the Crimes act.

The Queen Leaves Balmoral To-day.

Special to THE TIMES.

LONDON, June 16.—The Queen left Balmoral Castle at 2 o'clock this afternoon for Windsor. Her Majesty was accompanied by the Princess Beatrice.

More Cases of Cholera.

Special to THE TIMES.

MADRID, June 16.—There were five new cases of cholera in this city yesterday, and one death from the same disease. In the city of Valencia there were two fresh cases but no deaths. In the province of Valencia, however, outside of the city there were forty-eight new cases and twenty-seven deaths. The city of Marcia reports forty new cases and seven deaths, while other parts of the province of Marcia return twelve new cases and four deaths.

Pleased at His Departure.

Special to THE TIMES.

DUBLIN, June 16.—The Parnellites are organizing for the purpose of holding a monster demonstration to show their pleasure at the departure of Earl Spencer Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, on Saturday next.

The Cholera—Madrid Panic Stricken.

Special to the TIMES.

Severe Weather in Iceland.

Special to THE TIMES.

GLOUCESTER, Mass, June 16.—Fishing vessels from Iceland report that the past winter in that place has been the most severe ever known. Almost all the cattle perished and the fish were scarce. Up to the middle of May heavy snowstorms were still raging.

Gen. Grant Traveling.

Special to THE TIMES.

SARATOGA, June 16.—The special train bearing Gen. Grant arrived here on time. A great crowd was at the depot trying to catch sight of the General, but he was visible but a moment as he stepped from the train that had brought him from New York to one that was to convey him to Mount McGregor. Postmaster Wheeler, G. A. R. in full uniform acted as guard to keep the crowd back.

General Grant Reaches Mount Macgregor.

Special to THE TIMES.

MOUNT MACGREGOR, N. Y., June 16.—General Grant arrived 2:45 p. m. to-day. The last stage of the journey was the worst, the jolting caused the General much pain and fatigue.

A Postmaster Suspended.

Special to THE TIMES.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The postmaster at Bozeman was suspended upon the report of the inspector, showing gross carelessness in managing his office, failure to collect accounts for box rent, and especially failure to make a report of deposits and quarterly account, as required by the third assistant postmaster-general and sixth auditor after notice.

—We are pleased to learn, says the Kamloops Sentinel, that Mr. Maynard, of Victoria, will soon visit Kamloops and vicinity for the purpose of taking views. It is therefore, likely that some of the grand scenery of this part of the province will soon be found in the Canadian picture gallery.

THE ST. LOUIS MURDER.

Maxwell the Murderer Traced to New Zealand, Arrested.

Remanded Pending the Arrival of the St. Louis Officials.

Special to THE TIMES.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—The steamer City of Sydney from Australia arrived this a. m., with Sydney dates up to May 21st, and Auckland, New Zealand, news up to May 26th.

The Auckland papers contain an account of the arrest on May 5th, of Walter H. Lennox Maxwell, alias Theodore Cecil Daguier. He was charged with having murdered Chas. A. Preller in St. Louis on April 5th. The arrest was made by U. S. Consul Gamble, under instructions from the Chief of Police of St. Louis, and U. S. Secretary of State, on May 5th. He was brought into the police court and the charges against him were read. His Counsel claimed the court had no jurisdiction in the matter. After some argument the case was remanded to the seventh, and on that day again remanded to the eleventh, when Consul Gamble was the first witness called. He testified on behalf of the prosecution as to various articles found in Maxwell's trunk which among other things contained two embroidered handkerchiefs marked S. A. P. and a shirt with two large spots of blood. Maxwell in reply to questions stated these articles were given him in San Francisco by a man named Robinson. One of the two detectives who arrested him on the steamer testified to finding the following articles in Maxwell's grip-sack: Thirty-four cuffs and two handkerchiefs all marked C. A. P.; memorandum book marked Daugier; a pocket medical dictionary in which was written W. H. Lennox Maxwell, M. D., F. A. R. C. S., and a dressing case marked W. H. Lennox Maxwell. All these articles Maxwell said he bought from the same man Robinson in San Francisco. At this point the case was remanded to May 16th and again to May 30. Judge Smith, who is hearing the case, stated he would remand it eight days at a time until officers from St. Louis arrived.

LOUIS RIEL'S TRIAL.

An Effort to be Made to Prove American Citizenship by the Defence.

Special to THE TIMES.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 16.—Crown Counsel, who are to conduct the prosecution on behalf of the government in the Riel trial are here receiving instructions. Up to the present moment the date of the trial has not been fixed. It is understood that the defence will first endeavor to prove Riel's American citizenship. This fact once established his counsel will then point out that he can only be tried for waging war against a foreign country. The trial would then have to be made court-martial, but as martial law is not proclaimed in the Dominion, the trial could not be conducted in this way and would have to be abandoned. If tried as a Canadian citizen it must be for high treason, and as three of the six jurors are not half-breeds it is believed the jury would disagree. This would involve a new trial, when the same difficulty would undoubtedly be encountered.

Gossip from Middleton's Camp.

On the 8th Gen., Middleton, with Boulton's scouts as escort, rode out to Moosomin's reserve, twelve miles from here. While he was absent Moosomin and four of his braves came in. He has remained neutral, and to escape violence from Poundmaker left his home, crossed the river and went north. He says he has eighteen men and boys old enough to fight.

Major Morris says that, had Middleton sent him the forty men and one gun he pleaded for, he could have relieved Inspector Dickens and saved Fort Pitt, which was well provisioned and stocked with ammunition.

Some of the settlers in the country round about here, now camped on the plateau, say they don't care to go back to their farms, because they do not believe that the Indians have given up a tithe of their arms—certainly not their good ones.

Thus far Middleton's command has traveled, since leaving Winnipeg, 792 miles, of which 323 were by rail and 180 by river. This does not include roundabout routes by the small divisions, nor any of the numerous reconnoissances.

At Carlton the three police killed at Duck Lake lie buried, and over their common grave their comrades were yesterday busy in planting young pine trees brought from the knolls in the rear.

The officers' quarters at Carlton were in the handsome brick building erected by Lawrence Clark, when he was resident there as chief factor for the Hudson Bay company in the Northwest.

Col. Irvine says he will go to Regina as soon as he possibly can, being heartily sick of this country. He wanted to accompany Middleton to Battleford with some of the police, but wasn't asked to go.

The Indians at Battleford were told that 15,000 American troops were bombarding Winnipeg. This is a sample of the lying inducements offered to those always ready for an outbreak.

No news from Batoche, which is now garrisoned by Captains White and Fraser, and forty policemen from Prince Albert.

It may be that Middleton will send a steamer from here north to bring down the Sixty-fifth. This will only be done in case Strange's march is delayed.

From Eagle Pass.

Our correspondent writes that Charles Todd, S. M., is having a busy time of it at present. He lately paid a visit to this locality and remained for a few days. During his visit he fined 10 or 12 whiskey men at the Landing and through the Pass—making $200 for the revenue. He, also, seized a large quantity of liquors consigned to an illicit dealer, but claimed by a licensee. However, the liquor was shipped back to Kamloops by Mr. Todd.

The population of the place is increasing very rapidly. There is but little trouble for the police to keep order. In fact, it is rather an orderly place all circumstances considered.

The railway work is well under way through the Pass—the most of it being sub-let to workmen in small sections.

The weather has been changeable for some days with considerable rain, making the wagon road heavy, but the crops are looking remarkably well throughout the country.

THE whole British force has reached Dongola. All the stations south of that place have been evacuated, and 7225 refugees have gone north.

HON. MR. BOWELL has introduced a bill in the house of Commons at Ottawa, authorizing a loan of $30,000,000, the interest not to exceed 4 per cent.

HENRY WARD BEECHER says he knew nothing of the president's purpose of giving his son Herbert an office, and has never asked an office for anybody.

THE Italia newspaper, of Rome, has just published evidence showing that the story, that Pius IX. was a Freemason is entirely without foundation.

WILLIAM HENRY, who is about to start a new newspaper enterprise in New York, says he has $600,000 subscribed. His intention is to kill off the Herald and World—if he can.

C. W. JOHNSON, the colored philosopher of Hamilton, Canada, announces that he has constructed an air machine which will make the passage across the Atlantic in four days, ten hours three minutes and one and a quarter seconds.

THE expedition arranged by the Royal Geographical Society of England, to thoroughly explore the newly discovered inland sea, Lake Mistassini, will leave Quebec to-day, via the St. Lawrence, Saguenay, Lake St. John and the Chanmonchonan river.

IN the superior court of Quebec, L. G. MACDONALD, of St. John, Quebec, acting for himself and 10 shareholders, of the defunct Consolidated bank, began suit against John Rankin, ex-president and Sir Francis Hincks, ex-director, to recover $3,500,000, which was lost by the mismanagement of the affairs of the bank. The defense claims that General Manager RENNIE, who fled to St. Paul, Minn., deceived them by falsifying the books and accounts.

MANY of the ministerial journals in the east are hinting at the possibility of MR. BLAKE not being able to form a cabinet. These forget possibly, that MR. BLAKE formed a cabinet for Ontario in 1871, which with but few changes has stood ever since and likely to remain in power for some years yet. Fourteen years is not a bad record. It is the certainty that when MR. BLAKE once establishes a Dominion government it is bound to stay—which makes the average ministerialist feel uncomfortable when he regards the future, and he in the cold shades of opposition.

In the election which recently took place in the county of Antrim, Ireland, MR. SINCLAIR, Liberal, was elected by a majority of 139 over his Conservative opponent, MR. O'NEILL. The result is the gain of a seat to the Liberal party. Considerable excitement was manifested in Belfast prior to the announcement of the poll, and telegrams were anxiously awaited at all the polling centres in the county. The Conservative party seemed quite unprepared for the result, having anticipated that their candidate would have a majority, though small. This is the first time that the county has returned a Liberal since 1837.

IT is reported that PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has left the practical treatment of the silver question to SECRETARY MANNING, who was using all opportunities to discourage the monetization of Silver. MANNING in his annual report will probably recommend the repeal of the BLAND act. This recommendation will be supported both by the treasurer and controller of the currency and the entire Eastern press and banks. In his annual message to congress DELMAR predicted PRESIDENT CLEVELAND would make a similar recommendation. DELMAR believed the effect of the demonetization of silver in America upon Indian coinage would be a reduction in the value of the rupee—now worth two shillings—to 1s 1d, perhaps even lower. To save India from disaster, he said, two measures could be adopted. Mints in Eng. and could be opened to the free coinage of silver and the Indian mints closed to silver.

THE COLONIST WINCES.

Why cannot the Colonist state facts? and argue from such facts as they present themselves to its mind. THE TIMES is loath to believe what has often been expressed, viz.: that one must not expect to see facts stated in the Colonist unless they suit its purpose. In the course of our remarks upon the circumstance of MR. DALBY's name not appearing on the voter's list for School trustees, and the answer given to that gentleman by the returning officer, when he asked that official why he did not inform him of the absence of his name from the voter's list, THE TIMES did not even mention the missing applications; yet the Colonist endeavors to make it appear that we intimated that the editor of the Colonist was in some way responsible for the loss of the papers. The following is the most pointed portion of our remarks with which MR. HIGGINS' name was coupled: "May it not be possible that he (MR. HIGGINS) as well as others on that side were aware of the fact that the name of MR. DALBY did not appear on the list for either Johnson or Yates Street Ward? The statement made by the returning officer gives color to this impression, for it is evident that the omission was noticed, known to some, and discussed, and MR. MALLANDAINE accordingly instructed how to act." From this it will be seen that we believe that MR. HIGGINS did know of the omission of MR. DALBY's name from the list, and as that gentleman has not denied the soft impeachment we believe so still. Now, if MR. HIGGINS is so concientious an advocate of fair play, and is embued with that love for his fellow man which his card in this morning's Colonist would indicate, one would have expected him to have stepped up and said "friend DALBY, I find that your name is not on the voters' list, you had better see to it at once." However, that was not done and the sequel of the nomination proved so bitter a pill that MR. HIGGINS comes out in his old role of "injured innocence," in which by many nights of weary toil and long practice, he has become all but perfect.

IT IS said that before the territorial dispute arose between Germany and the Sultan of Zanzibar, Dr. Rohlfs, the German agent in Zanzibar, informed the latter that Germany had concluded a treaty of friendship and protection with the Sultan of Vitu, and hoped that the fact would induce the Sultan of Zanzibar to cease hostilities against the Sultan of Vitu.

GENERAL SUPT. EGAN, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, has just returned to Winnipeg from a trip over the road east of Port Arthur. He states that the line has been handed over to the company and that a large force of men are now at work putting the line in such condition as to enable the trains to run over it as soon as possible. It is the intention to have the line thoroughly fixed at once, so that it can be opened for both passengers and freight traffic during the present summer. Trains will make the run from Winnipeg to Montreal in about fifty hours.

Another Growler Heard From.

A gentleman, in a private letter from Victoria, B. C., says the Montreal Gazette, makes the following remarks on the rate of wages there and the great anti-Chinese meeting of which we have heard so much: "I have discovered to my own cost that what we call decent remuneration in the east is viewed with scorn here and a common white laborer would not descend to work for less than $2 to $3 a day, and is very unsteady at that. I took in the 'anti-Chinese' meeting on Friday last and my opinion is that if the organizers had not had a band of music, they would not have had a corporal's guard. By actual count, there were two transparencies, twenty torches—the bearers mostly boys—and, as far as I could count, about 300 people in and around the improvised stand, and I could not see that the hearers 'enthused' much." Referring to the above the Gazette says: "From this plain statement of an impartial eye-witness it may be imagined to what a degree the significance of the meeting was exaggerated."

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

The French government is now prepared to carry out the projected organization of its possessions on the Congo river into a French colonial state.

An Englishman, fresh from Russia, reports that the Czar had whooped up pledges to the extent of 1,400,000,000 rubles a few weeks ago when war was expected with England. The church promised 500,000,000 rubles.

It is reported that M. De Giers has asked Earl Granville to explain the position of the Ameer toward England, whether he is an independent sovereign free to negotiate or a vassal.

The window glass manufacturers of Pittsburg, Pa., will shut down for the summer within the next two weeks, a fortnight earlier than usual, on account of dull times. They will insist on a 25 per cent reduction in wages when work is resumed.

The first importations of timber from this province into the Northwest will be cedar poles for the telegraph line which is being built between Moose Jaw and Wood Hills. The poles are now being cut in the Rockies.

General Lord Wolseley is engaged on an official report on the charges against Generals Graham and McNeil for neglect of duty and incompetency in the conduct of their Soudanese campaign. If the report be unfavorable, both generals will be subjected to a special inquiry by a military council.

THE BEST

Hair restorative in the world is HALL'S HAIR RENEWER. It cures all diseases of the scalp, and stimulates the hair glands to healthful action. It stops the falling of the hair; prevents its turning gray; cures baldness, and restores youthful color and freshness of appearance to heads already white with age. The following are a few illustrations of what is done by

HALL'S
Vegetable Sicilian
HAIR RENEWER:

MRS. HUNSBERRY, 348 Franklin Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., after a severe attack of Erysipelas in the head, found her hair—already gray—falling off so rapidly that she soon became quite bald. One bottle of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER brought it back as soft, brown and thick as when she was a girl.

MR. KEELING, an old farmer, near Warsaw, Ind., had scarcely any hair left, and what little there was of it had become nearly white. One bottle of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER stopped its falling out, and gave him a thick, luxuriant head of hair, as brown and fresh as he ever had.

MRS. A. T. WALL, Greenfield, Cheshire, Eng., writes: "I have found the greatest benefit from the use of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER. It has restored my hair, which was rapidly falling off, and returned its original color."

DR. EMIL SEIP, Detroit, Mich., certifies that "HALL'S HAIR RENEWER is excellent for hair growing, and gives back the natural color to faded and gray hair."

MRS. S. E. ELLIOTT, Glenville, W. Va., says: "One bottle of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER restored my hair to its natural, youthful color."

No injurious substances enter into the composition of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER, and it is not a dye. Its vegetable ingredients render it in the highest degree beneficial to the scalp as a preventive of disease. Its effects are natural and lasting, and it does not make the hair dry and brashy, like the so-called restoratives compounded with alcohol.

Buckingham's Dye
FOR THE WHISKERS

Is, in four respects, superior to all others. 1st—It will produce a rich, natural color, brown or black, as desired. 2d—The color so produced is permanent, cannot be washed off, and will not soil anything with which it comes in contact. 3d—It is a single preparation, and more convenient of application than any other hair or whisker dye. 4th—It contains no deleterious ingredients, as do many preparations offered for like use.

STAGE CARICATURE.

BEFORE A MIRROR GETTING READY TO COUNTERFEIT IRVING.

A Faithful Travesty of the Noted English Actor—Making Up with Putty, Powder and Burnt Cork—A Funny Picture.

[New York Sun.]

A gentleman who saw a certain actor make up for Irving thus describes the process:

"The actor," said he, "possesses an oval face, which is remarkably smooth and free from lines. Divesting himself of all his upper clothing but his knit undershirt, he put on an old smoking jacket, and then seated himself before a moderate-sized mirror. With a towel he rubbed all the powder off his face, and then he took a peculiarly prepared lump of putty, and with it built a false bridge on his nose that made it much more prominent. Next he picked up a rabbit's foot, and dipping it in a paper of light, brownish-looking powder, he gave himself 'that bilious color the Irving has.' When this was well rubbed in and blended with the skin he took a cork, and, charring it in the gaslight, rubbed a little of its blackened surface on the middle of each cheek. This he spread and rubbed in with his fingers until it gave him a very haggard appearance. Then with a brush he drew a couple of dark lines extending downward from the corners of his mouth, lighter ones from his nostrils and below the inside corners of his eyes, and a couple on each side of his throat. These were spread and widened by rubbing them downward with one finger. Grimacing in the glass, he observed their effect, and then at the mouth he intensified. Then he put on his wig, and the effect was extremely realistic, though I sat but a few feet from him.

"'I had this wig made by an artist who studied Irving's head of hair. Do you know,' said he, 'his hair is naturally as straight as mine, but he has his dresser curl it every morning.'

"A little yellowish bear's grease paint artistically hid the line of demarcation between wig and forehead. 'Now,' said he, 'I'll put on the finishing touch.'

"With that he took another rabbit's foot, and with paler powder than that first used, he covered his face and neck. Very little of the powder was used, and that little was well rubbed in. When he had finished he handed me a photograph of Irving, as he did so exclaiming in the choicest Irvingese:

"'Look at this picture, then on this.'

"I did so, and my admiration for the art of the burlesquer was unbounded. 'But you have not looked at the photograph while making up,' I exclaimed.

"'I don't need to any more,' he replied. 'I have him down so fine that I can see him in my mind's eye all the time.'

"He told me, too, that Irving was quite offended for awhile because he burlesqued him at a performance where both appeared. He said: 'He was looking at me from a private box with President-elect Cleveland, and Grover laughed heartily and nudged him in the rib with his elbow. Afterward I was introduced to him in the club by Whitelaw Reid, and he asked me to give an imitation of him then and there, but I hadn't the gall to do it. I thought it wouldn't be respectful either to him or Mr. Reid. I never saw him play but five times in all, but I was so impressed the first time that I could imitate him then as well as now.'

"Just then he doffed his jacket and put on the rest of his Hamlet dress and then lit a cigar and began smoking. It looked too comical to see Hamlet, and such a Hamlet, smoking a Reina Victoria."

Orpheus C. Kerr.

[Cor. San Francisco Chronicle.]

The author of "The Mackerel Brigade" is being rapidly forgotten of men. Do you remember after he had married Adah Isaac Menken, and accompanied her to San Francisco, what a bubble of talk there was about it? He resembled then Artemus Ward a little—only that Mr. Newell (Mr. Kerr) was a much handsomer man, of the perfect blonde type and most cultivated in his manners. He is of a very aristocratic family, who repudiated his claim to their clemency after he had wedded poor Menken. It is well known that it was a genuine love marriage on the part of the poet-author, even if like many another it was finally unfortunate.

Kerr never regained his vivacity of spirits or his literary position after that fateful silence and its eventful separation. He did her justice after her death by giving to print the only truthful account of her unfortunate life. He lives now in New Jersey. Long since, after a dreadful illness he was again reconciled to his family, but he was never just himself. He is old now beyond his years; his yellow silken hair is turned a dusty gray; his mustache, that curled around the corners of his effeminate mouth in a wonderful artistic way, is white and long. The whole face is one of pain and sadness; he stoops in the shoulders, and he was an Adonis in figure; is morbidly silent and reticent. He writes a little—not much for print; is an inveterate cigarette-smoker, and paces up and down some favorite walk or room by the hour, buried in his own gloomy reflections.

The "unkindest cut" too poor Newell is that western papers are copying his "Mackerel Brigade" papers Without giving him credit, and even endeavor to so mutilate them as to be made "original." Is there any meaner thief in the world than the literary pilferer?

The Special Train.

[Chicago Herald "Train Talk."]

A special train, consisting of an engine and one car, was running over the road. It made fast time. None of the passengers were visible at the windows. As the whistle sounded for the crossings there was a mournful, lingering tone before its echo died away in the distance. Even the bell was hollow and solemn, and as little as could be like the sharp, cheerful clang of the average locomotive bell. The wheels seemed to moan along the track, and never a colt nor a calf by the side of the track kicked heels into the air in playful fear. Not even a dog measured speed with the engine, skipping along the furrow as dogs delight to do.

The section men seemed to bow their heads as they stood one side, shovels and sledges in hand. The smoke from the locomotive was densely black, and lingered dismally over the one car like a cloud. Presently the whistle sounded, longer and more sadly than ever before. The bell dinged almost in muffled tones. The wheels moved slower and slower, as if groaning deeply, and the train came to a stop. There was no platform, no station. By the side of the track was a little cottage. The dog lay crouched upon the porch. He did not even rouse to bark. The sun was setting behind a western cloud, and the chickens were walking solemnly to their roost.

Out of the one car stepped three or four men. They lifted, slowly and cautiously, a stretcher upon which lay a sheeted form. They walked up to the house, hat in hand, as the pump of the engine worked to and fro, sighing. The dog roused himself and whined. The door opened, the stretcher was carried in, and women were heard weeping and wailing. Another railway man, brave and unblenching in the hour of danger, had been carried to his home.

REST AND RECREATION

Should Consist of Reversing the Strain Upon Parts Most in Ordinary Use.

[Dr. D. A. Sargent's Lectures.]

The exhaustion entailed by this busy life of ours is tremendous, and so depletes the nervous system that disease is invited, and, the system being so exhausted, one falls an easy victim to the disease. Thus it is that recreation is absolutely necessary for the health of mankind. Recreation is that which, with the least expenditure of time, fits the person to resume his work. The recreation must, of course, vary according to the daily life of the person. The organs not under the control of the will, such as the heart and the secretory organs, receive rest immediately after performing a duty, but it is not so with the muscles of the body.

A good digestion is necessary for recreation. As long as nutriment is kept up, endurance is likely to continue. Digestion is always greatly aided by proper physical exercise, and it is thus that we may say exercise is the best of recreation. The fundamental of recreation is a change from one class of work to another, the brain worker requiring muscular exercise and the mechanic, brain work. Both classes will find a certain amount of emotional recreation to their advantage. It is well known that low spirits tend to lower the vital tone and render one liable to disease.

Those most in need of recreation are those engaged in work of a sedentary nature. Professional men should have recreation largely of a physical nature. A brisk walk is what physicians most frequently recommend for exercise, but for a person not accustomed to exercise this is not always beneficial, for, his brain being the only part of his body that is kept in activity, the exercise forces the blood into the head, and he returns home with a severe headache. Such a man should take passive exercise, such as rowing, sailing, or hunting, where the mind could be in slight activity also.

The majority of men engaged in mercantile pursuits get enough physical exercise from their every-day life, and their recreation should be of a mental nature. A few days in the country, a change of scenery, is beneficial to every one. Stock brokers and bankers require a very quiet recreation, but instead they try to get their recreation from the most exciting of sports, which is really no change from their daily life. Merchants and clerks are recommended to attend light entertainments, such as concerts and lectures, or play cards, chess, checkers, or other games of that nature.

Women and children, the former especially, rely too much on excitement for recreation, and carry it to such an excess that it becomes simply dissipation. A distinction must be understood between excitement which invigorates and excitement which exhausts. Dancing and roller skating are excellent exercises, but under the excitement of the music is too often continued to exhaustion.

Sugar by Electricity.

[Chicago Tribune.]

An entirely new process for refining sugar, electricity being the agent employed, is one of the latest discoveries. If the half that is claimed for it be true it is also one of the most important that has been made in the last half of this century. The process is said to be a dry one throughout, dispensing altogether with boiling and the use of bone-black. It is claimed that no sirup whatever is produced, the whole product being hard sugar of nearly if not quite absolute purity—namely: 100 per cent. cane sugar, per analysis. This result has been obtained from the lowest grades, the parcels treated ranging all the way from ten pounds to over a ton in weight.

The refined sugar is obtained within four hours from the time the machinery is set in motion, and the process is continuous, the output of fine sugar being kept up so long as the raw material is fed in and the machinery kept in motion. The cost of the process is almost ridiculously low, being set at not more than 80 cents per ton, with a guarantee that the loss will not be greater than about one-half of 1 per cent. The cost of the requisite machinery, including power and the apparatus needed to put the sugar into barrels, and the buildings required to inclose the works, is estimated to be about $100,000 in England for an output of 4,000 barrels every twenty-four hours.

Shattered Ideals.

["Uncle Bill's" New York Letter.]

Ideals were considerably shattered recently for those who saw for the first time William M. Evarts, Roscoe Conkling, Benjamin F. Butler, and Roger A. Pryor. That quartette was brought together in one court. Evarts was not the noble Roman whom his pictured face indicates, but a shabby, little, old man, strikingly like Daniel Pratt, the great American traveler, in general aspect. Conkling had only the height and outlines of high-headed dignity, the curl down the middle of his forehead was gray and sparse, most of his poses were awkward, and his features looked more irregular than an admirer would have expected. Butler was his own caricature to the full, and so short and round, moreover, that the comic effect was beyond anything that the pencil could trace on paper. Pryor was not the dashing southern general and duelist to the eye, but an exceedingly nervous lawyer, in careless attire.

Secretary Chase's Wit.

[Philadelphia Record.]

When the late Chief Justice Chase chose to unbend himself he could be witty as well as wise. At a social gathering at his house during the war, the subject of taxation having been mooted a distinguished naval officer present said he had paid all his taxes except the income tax. "I have a little property," said he, "which brings me in a yearly rental, but the tax gatherers have not spotted it. I do not know whether I ought to let the thing go that way or not. What would you do if you were in my place, Mr. Chase?" There was a merry twinkle in the eyes of Secretary Chase as he answered archly: "I think it is the duty of every man to live unspotted as long as he can."

Her Pertinent Suggestion.

[Merchant Traveler.]

Mr. Bozzen was troubled by a cat on a neighboring roof, and one night he jumped out of bed and, picking up a pistol, started for the scene of action, waking his wife by his movements.

"What's the matter?" she inquired.

"Cats," he answered, briefly.

"What have you got in your hand?"

"Gun," he replied, savagely.

"O, dear, take care, take care."

"Care, thunder! What do I want to take care for?"

"Care will kill a cat, darling," she whispered, and dodged under the cover.

A Son of Dickens.

[L'Echo.]

The son of Charles Dickens, who was at first reported killed at Fort Pitt, but who has happily escaped, went to Manitoba some ten years since and was made inspector of the mounted police. He was afterward promoted to be chief inspector. He is described as a plucky, dashing officer, inheriting some of his father's literary tastes; but fonder of adventure and open air life.

The Marvel of the Century.

[Chicago Tribune.]

The Japanese government is wrestling with the question of text-books in the schools. Think of it! A nation only lately barbarous already attaining to that highest index of civilization, a wrangle over the claims of rival agents of rival publishing houses. The evolution of Japan is the real marvel of the nineteenth century.

POLITICS AND THE SCHOOLS.

Under the above heading the Colonist asks "Now, if Mr. Higgins is an unfit man for trustee, because he favors the government, is not Mr. Fell an equally unfit man, because he is an opponent of the government?" It is astonishing that a journal of the standing and general business conduct of the Colonist, would ask such a silly and fallacious question. It is well known that Mr. Higgins is the editor and proprietor of the Colonist, and that that journal is the government's champion and paid defender, and as such must defend the acts of the government, whether those acts are against the interests of the schools or otherwise. Mr. Higgins no doubt is as competent as any candidate to fill the position of school trustee, but the position will at once be realized of Mr. Higgins, as trustee, opposing the government and that gentleman as editor of the Colonist defending them. We do not think it is wise for Mr. Higgins to ask to be placed in that position. Under other circumstances, but little comment might be made. Mr. Hayward is well known to be a supporter of the present government, but no objection in particular has been brought against him. Of course, the foregoing remarks can have no bearing on the result of the election to-day, but we cannot allow such ridiculous comparisons to go without comment.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—"Pecks Bad Boy" at Philharmonic hall to-night.

—The prospects for the Sic-a-mouse narrows country is said to be excellent.

—Mr. Dyer, of Irondale, who came here in search of a sleep that had been stolen from him, took it home with him last week.

—Mr. Simmons has passed over the Kamloops hospital contract to Mr. J. R. Park.

—Mr. Cambie, in charge of the Kamloops division of the C. P. R., has returned to his duties from this city.

—Mr. Harper shipped sixty head of fine cattle from Van Horne for this city a few days since.

—Mr. J. Wood of Kamloops is cutting cordwood on Shuswap Lake and hauling it to Kamloops where he finds a ready market for his wood.

—"China Charley" charged with keeping a common gaming house was fined $10 by Judge Walkem at the Clinton Assizes.

—At the Clinton Assizes John C. and Henry Brown were tried for assault. Guilty with recommendation from jury for light sentences. Fined $50 each.

—Mr. Gingles obtained a verdict for $346.50 against Mr. Onderdonk for work in burning charcoal at the Clinton Assizes, the full amount claimed.

—Messrs. Nelson and Reid have returned to Spence's Bridge from a tour of the Kettle river country. They speak in high terms of the section.

—Mr. Dewar, of the skating rink, arrived on the Elder last Sunday bringing 55 new pairs of roller skates. The rink has "caught on" with the public.

—The Iowa excursionists, composed of editors and ladies, arrived in Seattle last night. They will not come as far as Victoria.

—The Olympian brought freight today for: Blackburn, Marvin & T. Fell & Co., O W Sullivan, Welch Rithet & Co, E B Marvin, O W Sullivan, A Lewis & Co.

—Mr. Ernest Hutchinson, of Langley, three years ago planted a lot of young fruit trees in his nursery. They are now ready for transplanting, and are of excellent quality.

—Mr. Robert Small, an employee on the Messrs. McMillan's contract near Eagle Pass was severely injured on the head a few days ago by a horse kicking him.

—Mr. Charles A. Semlin, M. P. P., recently paid a visit to some of his constituents, who were pleased to have him in their midst. Others should take a leaf out of Mr. Semlin's book in this respect.

—Messrs. Derwent & Tweedy of the Royal Hotel, Eagle Pass, are endeavoring to procure a liquor license for their hotel. They are reported to be highly recommended.

—From a gentleman just arrived from Comox, it is learned that quite a number of new settlers are locating in that part of the Island. The hay crop never was better, and the outlook for the grain yield is also good.

—The paragraph in yesterday's issue referring to the parties in a recent divorce case as "bridging the chasm" is incorrect. The plaintiff is compelled to support his wife, as the law compels him to do so.

—Two hundred and ninety-six dollars was the amount of receipts at the gate at the base ball match at Seattle on Saturday. One-half of this amount goes to the Reds and the other half to the railroad company.

—Commencing Monday the Northern Pacific train for the Sound will leave at 1:15 p. m., and arrive at Tacoma at 8 p. m. South bound, the train will leave Tacoma at 5:25 a. m., and arrive here at 12:15 p. m. In short, the train will leave here fifteen minutes earlier than at present.—Oregonian.

—The following passengers arrived from New Westminster by the Yosemite: Mr and Mrs T Ladner, Mrs Tillman, Miss Tillman, Rev. Barss, Capt Urquhart, Yorke, O.F. Cosper, J H Gillespie, C D Rand, C F Todd, S Magor, Kinnella, M English, Wadham, Parr, Booth and others.

A letter from Farwell to the Spokane Falls Review says that the burnt district is rapidly building up with a superior class of buildings and that the place is making wonderful growth. The steamer Kootenai is making regular trips and in excellent time. Farwell will be an important city on the line of the Canadian Pacific, in time.

—The Olympian arrived on time today but did not come into the inner harbor, owing to the low tide. In order that she might make good time, and take on board six carloads of bonded freight that is waiting for her at Tacoma, she did not discharge to-day's cargo. It was carried back with her and will return to-morrow.

—In reference to the seizure of the Hope the Port Townsend Argus says: "The steamer is still tied up at Quincy street wharf. It is understood that her owners will be fined heavily for violation of our laws by putting into Semiahmoo and having connection with the American shore without clearance papers. A claim has been made that it was in 'stress of weather,' but that is rather gauzy."

PERSONAL MENTION

Peck's Bad Boy is at the Driard.

Rev. Mr. Barss returned to-day from the mainland.

Capt. Urquhart was a passenger by the Yosemite to-day.

Mr. C. D. Rand has returned from the mainland.

C. F. Todd returned to the city to-day from a business trip to the mainland.

J. A. Wadhams, of Ladner's Landing, arrived in the city to-day.

Major E. E. Bligh returned from Clinton to-day.

J. F. Allison, of Similkameen, and F. Logan, of Cariboo, arrived in the city to-day and are registered at the Oriental.

Messrs. A. Macdaff, New York, G. A. Mitchell, Philadelphia, and T. W. Blacklurn, Omaha, are registered at the Driard.

Mr. E. A. Wadhams, of Ladner's Landing arrived in the city to-day. He may operate his cannery this season, as the run of salmon is large and prices are looking better. The crop prospects in his section never were better.

Mrs. C. H. Ward, lately of Kamloops, leaves this city for England to-morrow. She goes by the Northern Pacific, thence to New York from whence she will take the Aurania for Liverpool.

Passengers by the Olympian to-day were: M Waldren and wife, J McDonald, A McDonald, J Urquhart, W M Redcliff, L McLean, J D McPherson, J Conner, L Jacobson, J Laton and wife, E J Dixon, M Oppenheimer, J Fenson, C D Harman, Mrs S E Kennedy, A McDuff, J S Korn, D S C Devan, C Thorn, J Williams, R A Coleman, Miss Brown, Miss Martin, W R McPherson, Mrs Hunt, J A McKenzie, Mrs E Bremen, Mrs J Donaldson, G A Mitchell, A Gaurd, J R Philipps, B Gould, Miss Aukney, D Campbell, Miss Tapp, W Saunders, M Lawson and wife, L Haney, J W Graer and wife, Mrs E W Heath, M Neppack, J Conner, F Wilson, Mrs Fraser, D G Harman, A Dixon, G K Beattie, M Broun, V Cook, Miss Mitchell, Miss Mitchell, Miss Blake, A Hyde and wife.

Took a Trip.

Our genial friend and editor of the "Bulletin," Mr. Frank Campbell, visited Goldstream to-day. This trip has taken him further from the far famed corner than he has been for the last 27 years. One would not imagine by his rubicund appearance that he needed a change of air. Long may he preside at the corner. During the number of years that our friend has edited the Bulletin what a tale has been told of joy and sorrow, hopes realized and anticipations blasted! The advent of the coming generation and the crossing of the divide by the old; battles won and lost; the building up of new empires, and the decay of those who have passed the zenith of their power. Many new innovations in these days of invention, and to us what is most important, the growth of our distant province from a mere child, playing in the sands and looking for nuggets of gold, to almost a full grown man, whose connection with a growing nation of the world will, in a few months, be more than a dream of hope, yea a solid band of reality, over which the products of the east will be exchanged for those of the west. What an interesting volume could be compiled from the past files of Frank Campbell's Bulletin!

The Trustee Election.

The election for school trustees, held to-day, was conducted very quietly on behalf of the several candidates. Nevertheless quite a large vote has been polled. We have just time to announce the result as follows:

JAMES BAY WARD.
R. B. McMicking	179
D. R. Harris	101
Alex. Wilson	87
YATES STREET WARD.
Charles Hayward	126
John Braden	111
James Fell	106
C. E. Redfern	62
JOHNSON STREET WARD.
D. W. Higgins	172
C. M. Chambers	144
Wm. Dalby	139

The first two names in each ward are those who will form the Board for the ensuing year.

Trouble with the Chinese in the Interior.

The Kamloops Sentinel of the 11th inst., says: It has been understood of late that when the Indian agent advised the Indians to claim from Mr. Onderdonk pay for the railway chinamen camping upon the reserve at Salmon river, while it is stated the contractor notified the China gangs they would be charged for use of the camping ground. This John refused to submit to and struck work at Messrs. Sinclair & Co.'s job. These China gangs are reported interfering with others working, and to-day Officer Todd took up with him a force of specials, well prepared to do service in such cases. A good deal of interests is felt in the outlook.

Mr Superintendent Allen's Dismissal.

The electors of the Lillooet District are determined not to allow the dismissal of Mr. W. F. Allen from the position of road superintendent, by the Provincial government, to die out without a full knowledge of the whole facts being ascertained and made known to the public. The Times has been forwarded a number of documents bearing on the question with the request that they be published. The first of these appear in this days issue, to be followed by others till completed.

"Pecks Bad Boy."

The New York Graphic says of "Pecks Bad Boy": It is ridiculously absurd, but it is so cleverly presented that the most confirmed cynic is compelled to surrender to the laughter-provoking doings of the various characters in the piece. The house was crowded last night, and the generous applause and hearty laughter evidenced the favor with which it was received.

Which is Correct?

Mr. D. W. Higgins publishes a card in his own paper stating that "I decline to accept the seat upon a technicality." In an editorial the same announcement is made. The utter absurdity of such a statement is shown in another column of the paper where the returning officer publishes a card saying "William Dalby's nomination as a candidate for School Trustee in Johnson Street Ward is declared valid."

Y. W. C. T. U.

The above society held their annual meeting last night in Philharmonic Hall, Mrs. Spofford presiding. Reports from the different societies were read and addresses delivered by Mr. West and Mrs. Jenkins, president of the W. C. T. U. Good vocal and instrumental music was provided, and a pleasant evening was spent.

Esquimalt Trustee.

Mr. John Doran was reelected school trustee at Esquimalt yesterday. There was scarcely any interest taken on the question, and only three or four electors were present.

No. 3 Battery, R. A., Garrison Artillery.

Will parade at the drill shed, James Bay, on Tuesday, 16th inst., at 7:30 p m., to arrange for shot and shell practice. Attendance compulsory. Militia Act will be enforced against absentees.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

(While the columns of The Times are open for the discussion of questions of public interest, to correspondents, it must be understood that it does not necessarily endorse, nor coincide with, the sentiments expressed by writers in this column.)

Is the Ballot Secret?

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir,—Will you please inform me, through your paper, if the counterfoil attached to the ballots, for School Trustees is strictly in conformity with the legal form? If so, can it be maintained that the ballot is secret. I am one who changed his vote for the above reason.

Householder.

The Clinton Meeting.

Clinton, June 9th, 1885.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir—I was unable to be present at the political meeting held here on Monday last where the Hon. Attorney-General aired his eloquence and our resident member, Mr. E. Allen, set forth his grievances. I understand, however that those prelent were not all in favor of the government. I had fully expected, from a hint received from your city, that a resolution would have been moved endorsing the policy of the government or at least the actions of the Hon. A. E. B. Davie, which would have amounted to the same thing, but owing to the temper of the meeting, no doubt it was thought best by the honorable gentleman, and the few friends which the government can count upon in this district, not to expose their weakness by having a condemnatory vote passed. It is generally believed that a system of purchasing support will be adopted before the coming election, such as that attempted by the Hon. Provincial Secretary in the New Westminister district, as report has it that hon. gentleman is promising a few loads of gravel here, a new bridge there, and a piece of doubtless needed, new road in another locality. It strikes one as passing strange how it is that members of the government become so very much alive to the wants and requirements of their districts when it means the time for asking their constituents for a return of favors extended to them at a former election! No, no, gentlemen, you cannot hoodwink the honest electors of this district by prolific promises; actions are what are required.

A Clintonite.

An Open Letter to Hon. A. E. B. Davie.

Sir:—Finding that you still persist in ignoring me in every possible way, I am compelled to send you this open letter; and my grievances are as follows:

Firstly—As the resident representative, I am not consulted as to the requirements of the district on any subject. Secondly—Mr. Davie's acknowledged headquarters for advice and correspondence is Mr. Uriah Nelson's Clinton store. Thirdly—Ignoring in toto the existence of the people I was personally elected to represent. Fourthly—Exhibiting in this sparsely settled country strong partialities and animosities, which has created more ill feeling among the settlers than has been known at any previous epoch. Fifthly—The neglect of the district in the matter of the bridge at Ashcroft station, in allowing Yale members to vote it down and in not having everything arranged for the season before it was too late, thus causing thousands of dollars loss to the district by placing obstacles in our way of progress. Sixthly—Vacillation and inconstancy to the district, in helping other districts more than those you were elected to represent.

Now, sir, for the above grievances I now publicly demand that we both resign our seats in the Local house.

Edward Allen.

Grave Creek, June 1, 1885.

Mr. W. F. Allen's Ability as Road Superintendent Vindicated.

Hat Creek, March 30th, 1885.

This is to certify that I, the undersigned, have for the last two years worked as foreman on the Lillooet district roads under the direction of Superintendent Allen, and can testify to his able management and his ability as a workman. And when in camp always did a faithful day's work along with the men; and I defy any man to find fault with the work done.

John G. Collins.

We, the undersigned workmen, late in the employ of the government, and under the superintendence of W. F. Allen, do hereby very much regret the dismissal of that gentleman, and to our knowledge without fault or cause of any kind. We further state that all work done under his able superintendence is such as to give general satisfaction and that nothing but false statements to the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works could possibly have caused his dismissal.

Signed, E. S. Peters, John Williams, Frank Hulton, Frank F. Gottfriedsen, John Gallagher, William Dooley, Louis Mouralot, William S. Riley, William Green.

—Such of our local butchers as are in want of toothsome mutton for their customers, should apply to Mr. L. Campbell, near Kamloops, as he has a number of fine sheep for sale.

—The Portland News states that the Portland Base ball club will play the "Reds," of Seattle, on July 4th, and will then cross to Victoria and play the Amities.

—The Sister Superior from Montreal is now at St. Ann's Convent Kamloops, making an inspection visit. The Sentinel understands she will visit all the convents in the province.

—Supt. Roycroft did not deem it necessary to hold an inquest into the death of the man Brown, of Happy Valley, as it was evident that death resulted from natural causes or from the effects of debauchery.

—Mr. E. Cannell, of Kamloops, had some sheep sheared a few days since, a ram attracted special attention; his weight was 306 pounds, from which a fleece was afterwards taken weighing 23 pounds.

The Attack on Chinamen.

The charge against the young men Leclair and Marwick, with having assaulted and brutally beaten two Chinamen on Sunday on the Craigflower road, was investigated to-day before Mr. Alex. McLean, J. P. at the gaoler's office. Mr. Theo. Davie appeared for the Chinamen and Mr. J. P. Walls for the prisoner Leclair. The two Chinamen, whose names are Ah Wing and Ah Loy, were examined under oath. They are both railroad navvies, and their testimony was to the effect that while proceeding along the Craigflower road they were met and attacked by the prisoners, who jumped out of their buggy for that purpose. A third Chinaman, who was in company with them and escaped to the woods, also gave evidence incriminating the prisoners, who were identified by the three Chinamen and a boy, Stanley Fraser, who was berry-picking among the ferns at the time of the fight. Doctors Milne and Helmcken testified to the injuries received by the complainants. Ah Wing had two wounds on the scalp, one on the right cheek and an incised wound on the lip. Ah Loy had two or three contused wounds on the scalp, one below the right ear, from which there was a hemorrhage. None of the wounds were dangerous, and all might have been inflicted by a blunt instrument. The magistrate after a patient hearing of the case, committed the prisoners to stand their trial at next assizes. Bail to be accepted in the sum of $200 each.
